

Agenda

Commemoration of the World Food Day 2022

Them-	Leave No One Behind: for Better production, Nutrition, Environment and Better life
Date-	18 October 2022
Venue-	National Agriculture Information and Communication Center, Gannoruwa, Peradeniya
9.00-9.30am	Registration
9.30-9.35am	Lighting of traditional oil lamp
9.35- 9.45am	Welcome address by Mr K E Karunatilake, President/SLIAG
9.45- 10.00am	Address by Director General- Department of Agriculture
10.00- 10.30am	Keynote address by Mr.Wimlendra Sharan, FAO Representative for Sri Lanka and Maldives
10.30-11.00am	Tea
11.00-11.20am	Crop Sector Food Security-Measures to overcome the current crises and The Way forward towards 2030 by Dr Ajantha de Silva Director General, Department of Agriculture
11.20-11.40am	Animal Sector food Security-Measures to overcome the current crises And the Way forward towards 2030 by Dr (Mrs) K. A. C. H. A.Kothalawala,Director General, Department of Animal Production and Health
11.40-12.00noon	Fisheries Sector food Security-Measures to overcome the current crises and the Way forward towards 2030 by Mr. Dammika Ranathunga, Director General, Department of Fisheries
12.00-12.20pm	Contribution of forestry sector in ensuring food security and way forward by Dr. K. M. A. Bandara, Conservator General of Forests, Department of Forest Conservation
12.20-1.00pm	Discussion on the presentations
1.00- 1,15pm	Closing Remarks by Mr. Nalin Munasinghe, Assistant Representative, FAO
1.15- 1.25pm	Vote of thanks by Prof S P Nissanka, General Secretary, SLIAG
1.25 pm	End of the programme and Lunch